

NEW BEDFORD
WHALING
MUSEUM

Yankee Baleeiros!

The Shared Legacies of Lusophone and Yankee Whalers

From Massachusetts to California, the New Bedford Whaling Museum is proud to share the experiences of Lusophone (Portuguese-speaking) communities through a traveling exhibition. Yankee Baleeiros! is an engaging, in-depth exploration of the Azorean, Brazilian and Cape Verdean movement in the United States from early immigration in the 18th century through the latter half of the 20th century.

San Francisco Maritime National Historical Park

Maritime Museum, 900 Beach Street, San Francisco, California

On View Now through January 1, 2015 | Free Admission and open to the public

JOIN US FOR ONE OF THESE SPECIAL EVENTS

Opening Reception

Tuesday, September 30

5:30 – 7:30 p.m. at the Maritime Museum

Light refreshments

RSVP to (415) 561 6662 or dplumtree@maritime.org

Dinner Party Hosted by the New Bedford Whaling Museum

Tuesday, September 30

7:45 p.m. at McComick & Kuleto's, 900 North Point Street

$75 per person

Click here for tickets or call (508) 717 6816

Afternoon Lecture Series and Book Signing

Wednesday, October 1

1:00 – 3:00 p.m. at the Maritime Museum

Featuring:

David Bertão, Author

The Portuguese Shore Whalers of California

James Russell, President

New Bedford Whaling Museum

Donald Warrin, Ph.D., Author

So Ends this Day: The Portuguese in American Whaling

Yankee Baleeiros! is sponsored by the William M. Wood Foundation

THIS EXHIBIT IS PRESENTED BY

